TheALLDictionaries

Young-jae Moon
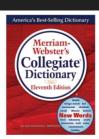

Problem Statement
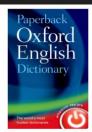

1. People need to look up words, but just 1 source may not be sufficient to understand.
2. While you can look up words across multiple sites...
   a. time consuming and
   b. hence some users just give up trying to understand the word.
3. Once they look up the word they may want to study it further for memorization.

Solution

1. Our website will make it convenient for users to look up a word from 16 different sources.
2. The users can also participate in various typing games to improve their English vocabularies and grammar.
3. The user can chat in a group chatting page for fun.

Ask sth!